Day 4
• Travel to Coward Springs, another former siding for the Adelaide to Clare: 134 km/1.5 hours
• You can stock up on essentials in the town of Jabiru.

Day 5
• Re-join the Explorer’s Way and continue south to Katherine.
• Alternatively return to Darwin along the Explorer’s Way, passing Glendambo and Witjira National Park. Please ensure you check these details when planning your itinerary.

Day 6
• You could also visit Jim Jim Falls (4x4 only) and view of the Adelaide River wetlands from the Window on Australia river cruise. You could also visit Jim Jim Falls (4x4 only) and view of the Adelaide River wetlands from the Window on Australia river cruise.

Day 7
• Explore the Katherine region, especially spectacular Mary River with a specialist guide.
• Head north out of Coober Pedy on the Explorer’s Way. Pass through the Padthaway Ranges and discover this island, but travellers will need at least one week to appreciate the subtle variations in colour, texture and landscape to key sites and special places.

Day 8
• A short drive from Katherine is Springvale Homestead, built at the turn of the century. Staying overnight at this working sheep station, you can experience life on the station and have a go at cattle mustering, shearing and horse riding.

Day 9
• You’ll see Farm Gate’s famous Wallaroo Salt Lakes and the picturesque town of Jerilderie.

Day 10
• Head south out of Coober Pedy on the Explorer’s Way.

Day 11
• Continue south on the Old Ghan Railway Heritage Trail through Strathalbyn and then Ogilvie and Cape Breton.

Day 12
• You can join an organised T Willandra Lakes Roadshow and discover this unique standing water system.

Day 13
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Nourlangie Rock Art, Kakadu.

Day 14
• Discover the unique lifestyle of the remote communities in the northern regions of South Australia.

Day 15
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Katherine Gorge and Kakadu.

Day 16
• You’ll see Farm Gate’s famous Wallaroo Salt Lakes and the picturesque town of Jerilderie.

Day 17
• Head south out of Coober Pedy on the Explorer’s Way.

Day 18
• Continue south on the Old Ghan Railway Heritage Trail through Strathalbyn and then Ogilvie and Cape Breton.

Day 19
• You can join an organised T Willandra Lakes Roadshow and discover this unique standing water system.

Day 20
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Nourlangie Rock Art, Kakadu.

Day 21
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Katherine Gorge and Kakadu.

Day 22
• You’ll see Farm Gate’s famous Wallaroo Salt Lakes and the picturesque town of Jerilderie.

Day 23
• Head south out of Coober Pedy on the Explorer’s Way.

Day 24
• Continue south on the Old Ghan Railway Heritage Trail through Strathalbyn and then Ogilvie and Cape Breton.

Day 25
• You can join an organised T Willandra Lakes Roadshow and discover this unique standing water system.

Day 26
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Nourlangie Rock Art, Kakadu.

Day 27
• Day trips are available to Ayers Rock, Katherine Gorge and Kakadu.

Day 28
• You’ll see Farm Gate’s famous Wallaroo Salt Lakes and the picturesque town of Jerilderie.
Further Information

Northern Territory
- Tourism Northern Territory
  - Website: www.tourism.nt.gov.au
  - Call: 1300 133 075

South Australia
- South Australian Tourism
  - Website: www.sa.gov.au
  - Call: 1300 200 142

Utah
- Tourism South Australia
  - Website: www.sa.gov.au
  - Call: 1300 200 142

Verde
- Northern Territory Information
  - Website: www.nt.gov.au
  - Call: 1300 200 142

Further Information

Fact and Figures
- The Northern Territory is the second territory in area, covering 13% of Australia's landmass.
- Many remote Aboriginal communities are located here, which are part of the Northern Territory.
- The Northern Territory is rich in wildlife, including the Northern Territory Wildlife Park and the Northern Territory Wildlife Sanctuary.
- The Northern Territory is also home to the Northern Territory Parks and Recreation Commission, which manages the park system.

Distance Chart

Explain the features of the map:
- The map shows the Explorer's Way from Adelaide to Darwin, highlighting various places of interest.
- It includes information on flora, fauna, and cultural sites.
- The map also highlights the border between South Australia and the Northern Territory.

Challenges and Tips:
- Be prepared for long distances and varying weather conditions.
- Check road conditions before departure.
- Always carry extra supplies and equipment.
- Respect local cultures and wildlife.

Explore the Highlights:
- The Northern Territory is home to a variety of attractions, including Uluru/Kata Tjuta, Kakadu National Park, and the Northern Land Council.
- The map also highlights the Old Ghan Railway Line, a historic track.
- The Legend section provides a map of the area, including National Parks and Reserves.

Conclusion:
- The map provides a comprehensive guide for travelers, offering insights into the Northern Territory's natural and cultural beauty.
- It encourages responsible travel and appreciation of the diverse landscape and people.

Further Reading:
- Tourism Northern Territory
- Northern Territory Parks and Recreation Commission
- Northern Land Council

Sources:
- Tourism Northern Territory
- Northern Territory Parks and Recreation Commission
- Northern Land Council